

Job details

UI/UX Designer, Start-up Fintech company

Full Job Description

Location: EU based (can move to Paris if possible) – flexible hours

Role: UI/UX Designer

Responsibilities:

- Designing: Wireframing and Prototyping, UX Writing, Visual Communications and UI, and User. Passionate about creating something from nothing and thrive on challenges.
- Attentioning: Have a keen eye for detail, and execute top quality deliverables In-depth UX knowledge gained over years working for top tier clients, companies, and projects.
- Problem solving: Leading the tackling of technical problems and continuously improving the decentralization system and lending system. Ensure the safe, stable and fast operation of the system.
- Innovation: Understand the latest development status of the field through continuous learning, and actively cooperate with the company's strategic development. Use continuous integration technology to build, deploy and test all aspects of the product to ensure high-quality delivery.
- Improving: Check various potential UI/UX improvements. Ensure the best user experience, stable and fast operation of the system;

About us:

Start-up company founded in Oct,2021, raised 2 million in seed round, building a decentralised derivative standard and market. Young and energetic team, from French and international academic background : Polytechnique, PSL, ESSEC etc.

For more information about our product and our team please review:

<https://github.com/DeBond-Protocol/DOC>

Requirements:

- A good level of English is required. The ideal candidate can also speak French and Chinese.
- Able to independently design and tune front end mock-ups, understand the principle of front end code, and be able to work cooperatively with the product designer and CTO.
- Able to work cooperatively with the head of development and frontend engineer, build site or reactive-app from scratch.
- Bachelor degree or above related to UI/UX design, or more than 3 years of work experience in fintech or blockchain related projects.
- Familiar with mock-up making process and related softwares.

Salary: 40 000,00€ to 60 000,00€ per year + up to 30 000,00€ annual bonus or company share

Advantages :

- Possibility to receive company shares.
- Salary can be paid with crypto.
- Flexible working hours.
- You have an opportunity to contribute to the open-sourced blockchain system, and participate in the EIP standard making process.
- You will be working with the most dedicated team. to build a game changing, never-before-built system.

Hours :

Monday to Friday

Teleworking:

- No

Qualified candidates should send their resume to info@debond.org